

Become an entrepreneur - become our partner!

As a consultancy boutique, we differentiate ourselves from the large, international and anonymous consulting firms, presenting ourselves as a flexible and independent company on the Swiss market. We are characterised by our integrity, quality and innovation, long-term customer relationships as well as our local and national focus.

Our goal is executive search on C-level, as well as building and developing succession plans. We rely on colleagues that already have an established market and want to use and actively shape the associated benefits to their success. As a

Partner

you will bring your extensive expertise to the network, acquire projects and independently work with clients. We support you in the structured and effective search process/ direct contact, as well as with our evaluation tools and many years of experience in executive search.

Your profile:

- University degree
- Strong management expertise, experience in corporate or recruitment consulting and/or in the suitable use of consultancy methods and instruments
- Professional expertise in several of our consultancy fields or expertise in a specific topic to complement our service portfolio
- Holistic and conceptual thinking and acting
- Very good professional and personal network
- Entrepreneurial, communicative and acquisition-focused personality
- Serious, competent and convincing at management level
- Great motivation and innovative strength
- Goal-orientated with high performance and quality demands in mandate implementation

What we offer:

We support and complement your current service portfolio and pave your way as a successful business person. Our partner programme includes four stages:

- Associate Partner
- Senior Partner
- Executive Partner
- Equity Partner

We offer potential candidates an attractive and fair business model, as well as facilitate entry and a career as a businessman with low cost and risk. You receive all the tools and organisational framework, comprehensive support in the acquisition and project phases, as well as intensive training and support. With suitable services and personal commitment, we offer future profit and participation.

If you are interested in the independence of a consultant and partner at Brandt & Partner and you meet the above requirements, please send your application to n info@brandt-partner.ch in preparation for further talks. Ms. Karin Tissier-Brandt looks forward to getting to know you.

Successful executive search consultants that are looking for more independence and participation or their next career step are also very welcome! We believe discretion is the basis of fair collaboration.